

DO YOU BELIEVE IN MIRACLES?

OUR JOURNEY OUT OF DARKNESS
AND INTO THE LIGHT

Rikki Neyer

She wore sunglasses inside the house.

Not as a style choice.

Because light had become something her brain could no longer tolerate without pain. For eight and a half years, Rikki Jo Neyer watched her mother disappear into catatonia no one recognized. Into suffering no one could explain, into a darkness that felt like it would never end. Do You Believe in Miracles? is the story of what it costs to love someone through the unthinkable and refuse to let them go. And what it looks like when God shows up.

He does.

This book is the proof.

"I did die. And God brought me back."

- THE AUTHOR'S MOTHER

*Rikki Jo Neyer is a first-time author, artist, and wedding officiant who grew up in Chicago and now lives in Michigan's Upper Peninsula with her husband. She is the founder of Happy Beginnings, where she sings as brides walk down the aisle— and then she officiates the ceremony. For nearly a decade, she served as the primary advocate and caregiver for her mother following a traumatic head injury— fighting through a medical system that kept looking away while someone she loved slowly disappeared into an illness no one could name. Through it all, she has come to understand that beauty and suffering are not opposites— they are companions. Do You Believe in Miracles? is her first book. She wrote it because she refused to let her mother's story end without meaning. She is living proof.*
